As part of the application process you will be asked about your preferred mode of attendance for the first year. The 2024 timetable consists of a Weekday Series or Weekend+ Series with options for in-person or online delivery modes. If successful in your application, you will be offered a place in one of these series and delivery modes for the year. Please note that class preferences and allocations are all subject to availability, and dependent on final student numbers. Any student encountering extenuating circumstances throughout the year can apply to change their class allocation, subject to availability.
